Dear Dr. Bilchik,

Each year, America's Best Doctors and our syndicated national outlets feature a special edition highlighting the accomplishments of physicians to help advance opportunity and advocacy within the medical profession. We will be including you as a Top Surgical Oncologist representing Santa Monica, CA.

As part of today's largest health information outlets, we will be highlighting you in our online and print publications with the goal of spotlighting leaders in each specialty while also helping millions of patients match with the most qualified providers in their area.

Please be sure to visit your link below to confirm the details which will be published. Also please verify your correct mailing address where we will be sending the edition you are featured in.

If you do not have Internet access, or if you prefer, please fill out and return the enclosed reply card by January 15, 2021. Our Top Doctor list is also covered by local and national media outlets, so please be sure to mention any new research or professional appointments.

Upon your confirmation, an editor will be in touch to confirm your details for our next issue.

We congratulate you on your commitment to upholding the highest standards in patient care while empowering advancement and opportunity within our medical community.

Regards,

Tiffany Byrne
Assistant Director

P.S. There's never a charge for inclusion, and inclusion is not contingent on a purchase.
